

Benefits of the Outdoor Kids Club Magazine

- Promotes reading skills by engaging your child to read about interesting topics in a fun, educational format.
- Introduces your child to the many outdoor activities that you already enjoy, in a positive, kid-friendly manner.
- Provides a way that you and your child can share more quality time together, both reading the magazine and spending time outdoors exploring the things they read about in the magazine.
- Encourages children to get outdoors and stay active to promote fitness and a healthy lifestyle.

These are just a few of the benefits of this great magazine. Sign up today and discover even more benefits for you and your child!
